

Community Relations & Land Rights Compliance Checklist

Forestry & Environmental Project

COMMUNITY RELATIONS & LAND RIGHTS COMPLIANCE – HIGH PRIORITY

Land ownership and usage rights are verified before project activities.

☐ Yes☐ No☐ NA

Local community groups are informed about project objectives.

☐ Yes☐ No☐ NA

Community consent or consultation procedures are followed.

☐ Yes☐ No☐ NA

No forced displacement or eviction has occurred due to the project.

☐ Yes☐ No☐ NA

Traditional land-use and cultural sites are respected.

☐ Yes☐ No☐ NA

Community access paths and grazing rights are not restricted without agreement.

☐ Yes☐ No☐ NA

Local employment opportunities are provided where possible.

☐ Yes☐ No☐ NA

Community grievances can be reported easily.

Yes

No

NA

Grievances are resolved in a timely and transparent manner.

Yes

No

NA

Project activities do not cause conflict between community groups.

Yes

No

NA

Local community leaders are included in decision-making processes.

Yes

No

NA

Benefit-sharing programs for communities are implemented.

Yes

No

NA

Women and marginalized groups have access to community engagement forums.

Yes

No

NA

Community awareness regarding forest and environmental protection is encouraged.

Yes

No

NA

Local cooperatives or committees are involved in resource monitoring.

Yes

No

NA

Compensation (if applicable) has been allotted fairly and transparently.

Yes

No

NA

The project does not reduce community access to water resources.

Yes

No

NA

Community forestry rights and access are recognized.

Yes

No

NA

No unauthorized land acquisition or boundary expansion occurs.

Yes

No

NA

Any land-use change follows legal clearance processes.

Yes

No

NA

Cultural festivals and traditional practices are supported and not restricted.

Yes

No

NA

Emergency contacts and key local community coordinators are identified.

Yes

No

NA

Joint forest management committees meet regularly.

Yes

No

NA

Livelihood development support programs are offered to local households.

Yes

No

NA

Conflict resolution mechanisms are clearly defined.

Yes

No

NA

Community-based wildfire response or patrol groups are active.

Yes

No

NA

Local business and market participation is promoted.

Yes

No

NA

Project information is communicated openly and regularly.

Yes

No

NA

Community safety concerns are documented and addressed.

Yes

No

NA

Community relations and land rights documentation is maintained.

Yes

No

NA